Q. What is introducer and why it is necessary while opening account?

Ans: It is essential that the prospective customer should be introduced by an existing account holder. It is preferable that introducer should come to the bank for introduction. However, in case it is not possible for the introducer to come to the bank, it is very important that signature of the introducer should be verified with utmost care and if possible the introduction may be confirmed with the introducer on telephone/in writing.

Q. What are the documents needed to open account at the Bank?

Ans: Please visit Documents Required page for details.
